RESOLUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH TRANSPORTATION BOARD

June 19, 2013

MOTION

Made By: Mr. Layne      Seconded By: Mr. Peake

Action: Motion Carried, Unanimously

Title: Commending Dana M. Martin

WHEREAS, Dana M. Martin has served on the Commonwealth Transportation Board (Board) from 2003 to 2013 representing the Salem Construction District, having been appointed to serve out an unexpired term on the Board by Governor Mark Warner, and subsequently reappointed to full four-year terms by Governor Warner and Governor Tim Kaine; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Martin devised a way to share his skills and expertise as an administrator and business leader by establishing AL-MART Training Consultants, LLC, in 1997, a firm offering training and skills courses to businesses, governments, and non-profit organizations; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Martin previously served the Commonwealth through his work on the Board for Virginia's Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, where he also worked with the Real Estate and Soil Scientists Boards; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Martin has not limited his public service to state government, having also served on a variety of civic, educational, and charitable organizations, including the Roanoke Valley Red Cross, the Roanoke County Schools Business Advisory Council, and the Art Museum of Western Virginia; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Martin put the insights and experience from these endeavors to use in his service on this Board, not only for residents of his district, but for all Virginia citizens; and
